AMAROS OF ITALY

Amaro is a traditional Italian herbal liqueur, with a name that means “bitter” in Italian. This liqueur comes in a range of styles, from bitter to sweet and mellow to robust, making it a unique category of its own. While similar drinks exist worldwide, amaro is distinctly Italian, with each region producing its own style in its own way. Today, amaro is enjoyed around the world, often served as a digestive after a meal, following coffee or even during the day to aid digestion.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF AMARO

The origins of amaro date back to ancient Rome, where herb-infused wine was consumed for its restorative properties to allow the wealthy to indulge more. During the Middle Ages, monks began using alcohol instead of wine, and by the 1800s, amaro was being sold in pharmacies and stores across Italy as a health tonic. Initially produced by monasteries and families, hundreds of variations now exist, with recipes passed through generations, contributing to the diverse range we have today.

VENTUNO’S FLIGHT OF AMAROS $20

AMARO MONTENEGRO 20ML

Distilled in Bologna, Italy. This amaro is made from a secret blend of 40 botanicals from four continents representing the flavours of Europe. Caramel in colour and offers sweet but savoury flavours, including vanilla, orange peels, eucalyptus.

AMARO DEL CAPO 20ML

A Calabrian amaro, produced by the Caffo family recipe with 29 Calabrian aromatic herbs and roots. Served icy cold giving a viscous mouth feel. This lighter colour amaro has an distinct flavour bouquet, including chamomile, peppermint, and aniseed.

AMARO DELL’ETNA 20ML

Originating from the slopes of Mount Etna in Sicily, this amaro reflects the volcanic and mineral rich nature of Sicilian soil. It has a dark and intense flavour achieved through a two month infusion of herbs and spices.
